

UNISON SOUTH EAST REGION DISABLED MEMBERS' TRAINING WEEKEND 2017

5pm Friday 2 June to 1pm Sunday 4 June

at The View, Eastbourne

The weekend will focus on Mental Health in the Workplace and delegates will be able to participate in workshops as well as hearing from our guest speakers.

Overall the activities will give disabled members an opportunity to have their voice heard, meet other like minded people, and get more involved in the group prior to the National Disabled Members Conference.

A full list of speakers and activities is still to be finalised, but the following guest speakers are confirmed:

- Work Stress Network
- Disability Discrimination legal update, Thompsons Solicitors

Book now !
Deadline to register: 12 May 2017

Similar to other UNISON training courses, all travel, accommodation and food cost are covered by your branch, for this residential course. If you require crèche facilities, or you have any other access requirements please clearly specify on the application form.

Time off for training

Stewards, health and safety reps, union learning reps and branch officers have the right to paid time off for training in their union duties in most workplaces. This also applies to part time activists and those who take part in on-line courses.

UNISON advises activists to give several weeks notice to employers and to provide managers with information about the course as required.

If you or your branch are experiencing difficulties in obtaining time off for trade union training contact your Regional Organiser or Regional Education Officer.

Travel costs for the event should be paid for by your branch, and it is advised that you speak to your branch secretary/treasurer before attending the event. Expenses can be claimed in advance if needed.

The cost of the seminar is £190 for residential delegates and £55 for day delegates.
